It's the New Year.

Life is tough.

Money is short.

But if you can afford a latte a week, you're in the top 10% wealthiest people on earth.

That's why we're asking you to give up a latte a week, and pledge £10 a month for 2010. Your money will fund legal education for 180 people.

Make it your New Year's Resolution.

Full name .....

Address ..... Post Code .....

Please notify CLEAR if you want to cancel this declaration, if you change your name or home address, or if you no longer pay sufficient tax on your income and/or capital gains.

CLEAR will claim 28p of tax on every £1 you gave up to 5 April 2008, and 25p of tax on every £1 you give on or after 6 April 2008. The Government will pay to the charity an additional 3p on every £1 you give between 6 April 2008 and 5 April 2011. This transitional relief for the charity does not affect your personal tax position.

You must pay an amount of Income Tax and/or Capital Gains Tax for each tax year (6 April one year to 5 April the next) that is at least equal to the amount of tax that LCF will reclaim on your gifts for that tax year. If you pay income tax at the higher rate, you must include all Gift Aid donations on your Self Assessment tax return if you want to receive the additional tax relief due to you.
